Our Company

Opening its doors in the greater Atlanta area in April 2006, RtSE Casting Company is a division of Raising the Standard Entertainment, LLC, which was founded in 1998.

Raising the Standard Entertainment, LLC has provided creative marketing services within the entertainment industry for over 20 years in the Atlanta area.

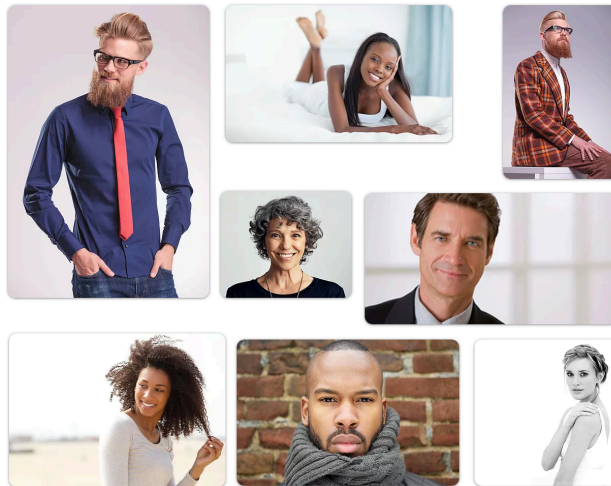

RtSE Casting Company focuses on providing talented and diverse actors for films, television, and commercials. We provide talent for clients in multiple regional (West coast, Northeast, South and the Southeast) domestic markets.

Our vast reach is not limited to the United States. Our online talent database has more than 3,000+ actors and actresses has expanded overseas and includes men, women and children of all ethnicities, shapes, sizes and ages.

RtSE Casting Company is committed to providing you with the best talent available.

RtSE Casting Company is an all encompassing casting business. Our services include, but are not limited too:

- Principal and Extras Casting
- Union & Non Union Talent
- Deal Memos
- SAG documentation
- Real People (Reality)
- Specialty Talent (Stunts)
- Assisted NFL, NBA and Music Artists transitioning into film and television.

RtSE Casting Company, Owner, Leslie M. Greene, has cast multiple feature films, television pilots and commercials in Atlanta, GA; Prodigal, Switching Lanes, with Director/Producer Tommy Ford, and television pilot Atlanta Law, just to name a few. During her early years in Casting, Leslie provided hundreds of extras for the box office hit, Stomp the Yard.

Ms. Greene received her undergraduate Bachelor of Science from Millersville University and in 2012 Leslie obtained her Master of Science degree from Full Sail University.
